

General Conditions of use for the rooms in the University Library City Centre

- Before using the rooms, you must report to the Service Desk (not the Reception Desk)
- You are not allowed to change the standard arrangement of the rooms
- Food and drink in the rooms are not allowed
- You are not allowed to put up posters on the walls
- After using the rooms, you must report to the Service Desk
- The University Library is not liable for theft, loss of or damage to your personal belongings in the room
- As a user, you are responsible for the proper use of the room and liable for any damage which has been inflicted on the contents of the room while using the room
- In the case of loss and/or not returning the key on time €200 replacement costs will be charged to the person on whose name the key is registered
- By confirming your booking you declare to have read and agree with these conditions of use