Regulations concerning the Societal Impact Award for Staff

This award is presented annually to a person who, in the year of the award, was working for the Faculty of Law, Economics and Governance at Utrecht University and who in the year in question has led or delivered a social project or achievement with a large societal impact.

The award may also be given to a (small) group of people who have, in the last year, jointly and inseparably produced the most remarkable achievement or led the best project.

The award consists of a €1000 prize.
The monetary prize must be used by the recipient(s) to further the project/achievement in question or for further social (research) achievements. The expenditure must be approved.

The member of staff must be nominated in writing to be eligible for selection. Written nominations may be submitted by all divisions, lecturers and students of all degree programmes at the Faculty of Law, Economics and Governance at Utrecht University and by all study societies associated with this faculty.

Nominations must be accompanied by the following:
- A motivation of the nomination, maximum 1 A4, in Dutch or English, which demonstrates the societal impact and makes a substantive link with the teaching/research of the Faculty of Law, Economics and Governance.

The jury will select a winner out of all the eligible written nominations. If necessary, the jury may ask the sender or the nominees for additional information in order to reach a decision.

Current jury members may not submit nominations nor be nominated for the award.

Depending on the number and quality of the nominees, the jury may decide to:
- place fewer nominees on the shortlist;
- not present the award.

The final decision will be supported by a jury report explaining the working method used by the jury and the considerations taken into account by the jury in making its choice.
