To enter the U-TEAch track via the in-service programme:

- You need to fulfill the entrance requirements.
- You need to be teaching a minimum of 5 hours and an absolute maximum of 12 hours per week at a bilingual school or international school in the Netherlands.
- Your course starts with an introductory period of one full-time week. After this, you work at school a maximum of three days each week and spend the other two days at the university where you have the opportunity to reflect on your in-school experiences.
- It is vital that your school provides supervision.
- You have the possibility to go abroad for a short period during the second part of the course as well as continuing to work at your own school.
