All views expressed in this book belong to the individual authors and do not represent the opinion of the ICC master program as an entity, nor do they represent the opinion of Utrecht University whatsoever.

Read at your own risk! Spelling mistakes and different types of English (i.e. AE or BE), or even completely different languages might come your way. This yearbook is just as diverse as the ICC program. Especially personal contributions from the student body (e.g. Student Profiles) were left unedited to preserve their authenticity.
