2. Basic information about accommodation in Coimbra

When renting a room, costs of internet, electricity, water and gas are normally split by the residents.

When signing the rental contract you will be asked to pay the first month, plus a deposit of one month.

Coimbra has more than 20.000 students. Academic year activities and new student placement start on September. Searching accommodation in the end of August will allow incoming international students to have more options to choose from.

On arrival, there are several hostels located in the historic centre and near Universidade Aberta, with beds in shared rooms starting at 15€ per night. Nearby hotels should have prices starting at 50€ a night with many offering deals on online booking sites.

Some online sites to search for short term accommodation (rooms and apartments) in Coimbra are:

www.uniplaces.com - Online accommodation services

www.olx.pt - Online portal with rooms and apartments announcements

www.custojusto.pt - Online portal with rooms and apartments announcements

Facebook groups of Erasmus students are normally a great place for information
