

11. Canons' Hall (Kanunnikenzaal - Faculty Club)

History

The Canons' Hall is named after the earlier residents of this building at the address of Achter de Dom 7. The building was constructed around 1400, when it was commissioned by a canon who was employed as a clergyman at the Cathedral collegiate church and who assisted the bishop with the administration of the Diocese of Utrecht. In later years, the building was in use as the police headquarters. Receptions are also possible in this hall if it is hired in combination with the adjoining Star Chamber.

Hall/room capacity

Theatre (standard) 50 persons

Reception 50 persons

Other configurations possible in consultation.
