

GREEN CRIMES AND ECOJUSTICE CONFERENCE PROGRAMME 2023 UTRECHT

Thursday 25 May

Building: Janskerkhof 2-3
Hour	Room 013	Room 017	Room 019	Room 021	Room 111
9:00	Registration (also on Friday) / coffee
9:20 - 9:30	Welcome and introduction Prof. Ivo Giesen (Head of law department, Utrecht University) Prof. Dina Siegel (Professor of Criminology)
9:30 - 10:30	Plenary session Chair: Prof. Dina Siegel Keynote speaker: Planetary Health and Eco-Justice: Contributions from Green, Blue, Southern, Cultural and Decolonial Criminologies. Prof. Nigel South (University of Essex) Discussion
11:00 - 12:30		Panel session 1: Animals and crime (Organised by CIROC) Chair - Dina Siegel 1. Chinese organized crime and the illegal wildlife trade: diversification and outsourcing in the Golden Triangle. Daan van Uhm & Rebecca Wong 2. Dog-fighting as organised masculinities-based animal harm. Angus Nurse 3. Mexican organized crime and the illegal trade in totoaba maw. Israel Alvarado-Martínez & Aitor Ibáñez-Alonso 4. European illegal puppy trade and organised crime. Jennifer Maher & Tanya Wyatt	Panel session 3: Corporate environmental crime Chair - Wim Huisman 1. Restorative response to harms caused by asbestos companies. Marilia de Nardin Budo & Brunilda Pali 2. The corporate atrocity and environmental crime nexus. Wim Huisman 3. A decade of analysing environmental crimes and harms: perspectives and experiences from environmental agencies in the Netherlands. Nick van Doormaal 4. Criminal careers of environmental crime offenders in The Netherlands. Jessica Hill	Panel session 4: Climate change and Environmental harm Chair - Cedric Ryngaert 1. Beyond environmental harm: Resurrecting deviance for a climate in crisis. James Heydon & Caitlin Bunce 2. The role of criminal law in the legal response to climate change. Sjoerd Lopik 3. Pending interdisciplinary agenda of contemporary environmental law. Jorge Isaac Torres Manrique.	Panel session 2: Activism, perceptions and pollution Chair - Lisa Ansems 1. On bad intentions and harmful consequences: Understanding public perceptions of environmental crimes seriousness. Marieke Kluin, Jelle Brands & Lisa Ansems 2. The communicating pollution memory through collaboration between artists and activists in the case of the pollution 'Minamata Disease' in Japan. Orika Komatsubara 3. Ecocentrism and PFAS chemical regulation. Abby Muricho & Lieslot Bisschop 4. Pollution in the old town of Kinshasa in the Democratic Republic of Congo. Mule Boma
LUNCH BREAK
14:00-15:30	Panel session 5: Conceptualising ecocide Chair - Daan van Uhm 1. The criminal law dimension of ecocide. Cedric Ryngaert 2. The criminological dimension of ecocide. Daan van Uhm 3. The cultural dimension of ecocide. Susanne Knittel 4. The ecological dimension of ecocide. Marijke van Kuijk Reflections: Hendrik Schoukens (Ghent University) Femke Wijdekop (Stop Ecocide Foundation)	Panel session 6: Poaching and animal abuse Chair - Tanya Wyatt 1. Poaching trends and patterns during the COVID-19 pandemic: insight from a private nature reserve in South Africa. Nick van Doormaal, Paul Allin, & Craig Spencer 2. From the Sargasso Sea to the River Severn: Reflecting on the harms and crimes surrounding the European eel. Alison Hutchinson 3. The devastation of sea otters in the American Northwest. A look from eco global history and criminology (18th and 21st centuries). Inés Arroyo Quiroz	Panel session 7: Environmental degradation Chair - Lieslot Bisschop 1. Legal control of usage and production of charcoal in Nigeria. Olufemi A. Owoade & Adeniyi I. Olatunbosun 2. Do community forest concessions solve or exacerbate inequalities in biodiversity conservation? Alexandra Rasoamanana, Max Krott & Symphorien Ongolo 3. Early insights and learning from piloting situational crime prevention in wildlife crime. Sarah Gluszek 4. Ecojustice, Attitudes and Ethics: Challenges to Promote Environmental Conservation amongst Algerian Youngsters. Belaid Louiza & Chablaoui Brahim	Panel session 8: Climate migration Chair - Stefano Becucci 1. Land grabbing and forced migration. A preliminary view worldwide. Stefano Becucci & Vincenzo Scalia 2. Trafficking of women and girls in climate migration displacement. Nieves Sanz Mulas 3. Migrant smuggling as the only alternative way for African climate migrants to reach Europe. Manuel Cabezas Vicente
COFFEE BREAK
15:45-17:15	Panel session 9: Green crimes, security and technology Chair - Aitor Ibáñez-Alonso 1. Trees, SpaceBuzz, and symbiosis, or how VR can create ambassadors of planet Earth. Joost Raessens 2. A socio-ecological-technological perspective on structural and emancipatory violence in sustainability transitions. Jack Davies	Panel session 10: Organizational environmental crime (Organised by CIROC) Chair - Angus Nurse 1. Good for the company, bad for the environment - organizational environmental crime. Rita Haverkamp & Franca langlet 2. Is greenwashing inevitable? The construction of environmental crimes in the Italian legal system. Federica Montanaro 3. Green-collar crime: Laundering the proceeds of carbon credit fraud. Rhianna Hamilton & Christian Leuprecht 4. Corporate environmental crime: Shell Nigeria Environmental degradation and sustainability journey. Abubakar Ali Chifwang		Panel session 12: Prevention and reaction Chair - Romee Klis 1. A bumpy road ahead – the possible implications of climate change for the professional practice of the Dutch police. Anna Matczak & Sylvia Bergh 2. Environmental crime prevention in Finland - state of play. Iina Sahramaki 3. Interrogating article 20 of African Charter on self-determination: Which of litigation and indigenous legal system can accord Africa the right to self-determination. Olaniyi Felix Olayinka
17:15	Drinks offered by CIROC

Friday 26 May

Building: Academiegebouw
Hour	Academiegebouw Aula	Pandhof van de Dom
9:00		Coffee at Pandhof (Monastery garden of the Dom)
9:30 - 10:30	Plenary session Chair: Dr. Daan van Uhm (Associate Professor of Criminology) Keynote speaker: Towards a Global Analysis on Crimes that Affect the Environment. Prof. Tanya Wyatt (UNODC) Roundtable José Antonio Alfaro Moreno (EUROPOL) Liliana Jáuregui Bordonos (IUCN) Prof. Tanya Wyatt (UNODC)

Building: Janskerkhof 2-3
Hour	Room 013	Room 017	Room 019	Room 021	Room 022	Kanunnikenzaal (Not in JK 2-3, but Academiegebouw)	Room 111
11:00 - 12:30		Panel session 16: Green Crimes and the law Chair - Sybe de Vries <ol style="list-style-type: none"> The contribution of environmental and constitutional law in the materialization of natures right to access to justice. María Augusta León Moreta Ecocentric model of criminal law protection of environment in Croatia: a ten years after joining the EU . Igor Vuletic Green crime in the Blue Mountains: regulatory law, environmental crime & state accountability . Tameka Samuels-Jones Vertical harmonisation of the environmental crime directive: a case study of Bosnia and Herzegovina as the EU candidate country . Sandra Kobajica 	Panel session 14: Blue criminology Chair - Damián Zaitch <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Unseen annihilation: illegal fishing practices and nautical patrol . Ben Vollaard Blue crimes in the Parana-Paraguay Basin, Argentina . Damián Zaitch Like a fish out of water: ghost gear in the Arctic Ocean . Lieve Knoppen 	Panel session 13: Green cultural criminology Chair - Dina Siegel <ol style="list-style-type: none"> What mercy?: a study of mercy release in Hong Kong . Rebecca Wong Eco-piracy: criminals against ecocide . Stephen Snelders Sport or crime: camel races in the Middle East . Dina Siegel Customary illegality in the exotic pet trade . Janine Heim 	Panel session 15: Green crimes in Nigeria Chair - Aitor Ibáñez-Alonso <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Impact of oil spills on fisherman in the Niger Delta of Nigeria . Okorafor Ike Okorafor & Chinyere Jennifer Uche-Udah. Accessing justice for corporate environmental crimes in Nigeria . Kingsley Osinachi Criminalising green aesthetics in select Nigerian novels . Michael Chukwualuka Uyanne & Ike Michael Nwachukwu 	Panel session 25: Environmental security Chair - Thijs Jeursen <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Jeroen Warner Water, Peace and Security in Iraq . Irina Patrahau How Open-Source Data is Strengthening Protection of the Environment in Relation to Armed Conflicts . Wim Zwijnenburg Environment and Armed Conflict: from Environmental Impacts to Nature-Based Solutions . Marie Schellens
LUNCH BREAK
14:00 - 15:30	Panel session 17: Illegal wildlife trade (Organised by CIROC) Chair - Jessica Bell Rizzolo <ol style="list-style-type: none"> The need for non-criminal legal responses to environmental harms: remedies through conservation litigation for wildlife protection in China . Miaomiao Tian Wildlife consumption in China after the emergence of COVID-19: attitudes towards wildlife bans and zoonotic diseases . Jessica Bell Rizzolo Green-collar crime and brown bear trafficking in Europe . George Iordachescu 	Panel session 18: Ecocide Chair - Luigi Prospero <ol style="list-style-type: none"> What nature, what victim, what perpetrator? Progressive narrations and the continuous (re)evaluation of the international criminalization of ecocide . Merle Kooijman Ecocide: an international crime . Natalia Barbero The hunting ghosts of Bhopal: a need for an ecocide law in India . Nabeela Siddiqui Foreshadowing industry interference in implementing and enforcing the crime of 'ecocide': Lessons to be learned from FCTC article 5.3 and big tobacco involvement . Murat Ceyhan 	Panel session 19: Greenwashing and fraud Chair - Jessica Hill <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Manure fraud from the perspective of the environment . Lysbeth van Brederode & Pauline Goemans Greenwashing plastic: corporate harm to the environment . Nathalie Verkade & Jessica Hill Toothless climate transition plans - risk of greenwashing? Monika Feigerlova 	Panel session 20: Protection of the environment through law Chair - Michael Faure <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Protecting the environment with shield and sword: the need for coordinated interactions between human rights law and international criminal law . Nicole Citeroni. Toward autonomous environmental crimes . Michael Faure The environmental protection for future generations: a new topic of criminal policy? Reflections starting from the 2022 reform of the Italian Constitution . Mario Iannuzziello Ecuador and rights of nature in civil and criminal law Dorine van Norren 		Panel session 26: Environmental governance Chair - Thijs Jeursen <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Militarized Conservation in post-treaty Colombia . Tim Stork Hifazat - Law, land, and resistance in Kashmir . Aditi Saraf
COFFEE BREAK
15:45 - 17:15	Panel session 21: Illegal wildlife markets (Organized by CIROC) Chair - Damián Zaitch <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Knowledge insecurity facilitates wildlife trade . Orion Goodman Wildlife trafficking in Spain: a green criminology exploration . Mònica Pons-Hernández Quality and scope of data collection in international wildlife trade monitoring . Orion Goodman Illegal wildlife trade through the Manipur Corridor . Salam Rajesh 	Panel session 22: Green crimes, war and peace Chair - Dina Siegel <ol style="list-style-type: none"> From participation to militarization: shifting regimes of governance and violence at the Ecuadorian mining frontier . Diana Vela Almeida & Karolien van Teijlingen Environmental crimes in times of war: the case study of Ukraine . Anna Markovska, Iryna Soldatenko & Alexey Serdyuk Green crimes and illicit economies as conflict drivers: Myanmar the new Golden Triangle . Mark Brown 	Panel session 23: Waste Chair - Rob Widdershoven <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Imported thrifting fashion in Indonesia: potential environmental crimes and loss consumer . Annalisa Y, N. Nurhidayatulloh, & Clarissa Putri Aulia Waste exports, implications for environmental sustainability and human rights in Ghana . Mike Anane Illegal waste activity in the process of bunker fuel production: a criminological case study of corporate environmental crime and its enforcement . Giulia Giardi Can air pollution cause violent behaviour among human beings? A systematic analysis of literature review in a green criminological perspective . Parvathy Chandrababu Geetha 	Panel session 24: Illegal environmental markets Chair - Inés Arroyo-Quiroz <ol style="list-style-type: none"> The new challenges in international cooperation to fight organised environmental crime . Virginia Oddi Environmental crimes and illegal markets in Mexico (2012-2022) . Zulia Orozco Interviewing offenders on green victimization and the potentialities of restorative justice . Gemma Varona Responsibility of Mexico as an active agent in the trade of wild animals for pets . Inés Arroyo Quiroz 			Panel session 27: Food crime and environmental harm Chair - Daan van Uhm (Organised by Division Green Criminology, Dutch Society for Criminology) <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Food crimes in the Netherlands . Jessica Hill History of food crimes . Floor Haalboom Food crimes and waste . Shanna Mehlbaum
17:15	Drinks offered by Critical Pathways to Sustainability						