

Overview U.S.E. Seminar Series 2019

Thomas Buser, Universiteit van Amsterdam

Does willingness to complete predict labor market outcomes?

Jennie Bai, Georgetown University

Cross asset information synergy in mutual fund families

Bo Becker, Stockholm School of Economics

Debt overhang and the life cycle of callable bonds

Hans Degryse, KU Leuven

Can bank supervisors kill zombie lending?

Arjen Slangen, KU Leuven

How a CEO's origin shapes an acquirer's country choice

Simon Rudkin, Swansea University

Innovation and Infrastructure: Insights from Chinese Patent Applications

Hannes Wagner, Bocconi University

Corporate Governance Through Voice and Exit

Wandi Bruine de Bruin, Leeds University

Aging and decision-making competence: Emerging research and policy

Athene Laws, Cambridge University

Localised employment spillovers

Olivier Marie, Erasmus University Rotterdam

Job Loss and Crime: What's income got to do with it?

Hylke Vandenbussche, KU Leuven

Global Value Chains, Trade Shocks and Jobs: An Application to Brexit

Fabio Braggion, Tilburg University

Does credit affect stock trading? Evidence from the South Sea Bubble

Thomas Mickiewicz, Aston University Birmingham

Understanding the efficiency of the entrepreneurial process