For teachers just starting out with CLIL, to more experienced teachers, U-CLIL offers different training options.

U-CLIL at Utrecht University is a pioneering initiative which supports, serves and develops the CLIL teaching and research community at primary, secondary and higher education levels. It combines the latest research into CLIL with inspiring teacher education and training, both in the Netherlands and internationally. In U-CLIL educators and researchers from the Centre for Teaching and Learning at Utrecht University collaborate.
PRACTICAL CLIL FOR STARTERS

Four full days of workshops at Utrecht University

Are you new or relatively new to CLIL and want to improve your CLIL teaching methodology? This is a practical course in Utrecht in content and language integrated learning, specially designed for all subject teachers.

Topics include:
- introduction to CLIL;
- understanding and evaluating input;
- devising active learning lessons;
- speaking and writing in CLIL;
- personal professional development.

Dates: 14 January, 7 February, 12 March, 8 April

Costs: € 890 (includes tea/coffee and lunch)

REFRESH YOUR CLIL

Two full days of workshops at Utrecht University

Are you familiar with CLIL but want to develop your skills and confidence? This course is aimed at CLIL teachers who want to refresh and expand their CLIL knowledge and build up their CLIL toolkit.

Topics include:
- CLIL + mini-whiteboards;
- the language of your subject and devising CLIL learning objectives;
- effective questioning and thinking through CLIL;
- learner output and feedback in CLIL.

Dates: 15 April, 13 May

Costs: € 550 (includes tea/coffee and lunch)

CONSULTANTS

Jason Skeet

Jason is a British native speaker trainer who also teaches at a bilingual school in the Netherlands. He is a creative, enthusiastic trainer with wide teaching and training experience with children and adults. He is particularly interested in applying innovative teaching methods to CLIL. He has also worked as a lecturer in multimedia, run his own record label and published in various journals and magazines.

Hester Anniek Buesseler

Hester is an American native speaker trained as a bilingual and international school teacher. Alongside her consultancy and training work at the University of Utrecht she also teaches at a Dutch bilingual school. An energetic and passionate educator, she is interested in utilizing ICT within CLIL as well as developing CLIL for the foreign language classroom.

U-CLIL AT THE CENTRE FOR TEACHING AND LEARNING

U-CLIL combines the latest research into CLIL with inspiring teacher education and training, both in the Netherlands and internationally. In U-CLIL educators and researchers from the Centre for Teaching and Learning at Utrecht University collaborate. This centre brings together all the knowledge and expertise related to education at Utrecht University.

MORE INFORMATION

www.uu.nl/onderwijsenleren/clil
CLIL blog: clilreflections.blogspot.com