This flow chart concerns the use/reproduction of copyrighted work to create teaching material for the UU for non-commercial use:

- Digital readers
- Printed readers
- One-off use within an electronic learning environment (ELE)/Blackboard
- Presentations, e.g. PowerPoint

* The UU must reduce reproduction of copyrighted work. If reproduction is not necessary, simply use a link to the publication.

---

Does the image/text originate from a physical/digital book or journal?

---

Is the work Open Access or does it have an open licence, such as Creative Commons? Check the publisher’s website.

---

Does the UU have an agreement with the publisher?

---

Does the reproduction satisfy any of the following conditions?

- Max. 50 pages and not more than 1/4 of the publication or
- Max. 10,000 words from a book and no more than 1/3 of the publication or
- Max. 8,000 words from a journal or
- Max. 25 illustrations from the same publication or
- Max. 100 lines of poetry or max. 2,500 words of prose, and less than < 1/10 of the publication or
- Max. 1 couplet and verse from a song text or
- Max. 5 staves from one sheet of musical notation.

---

If so, use of the material is permitted.

- If a licence applies, check the terms and conditions of the licence.
- Cite the source.

Or add a permanent hyperlink to the publication.

---

If so, the source may be permitted.

When doing so:

- State the following: ‘Use of the source is permitted in accordance with agreements made with the publisher.’
- Cite the source.

Or add a permanent hyperlink to the publication.

---

If so, use of the material is permitted.

The UU has a purchasing agreement for this purpose.*

- Cite the source.

Or add a permanent hyperlink to the publication.

---

You should preferably add a permanent hyperlink to the publication.

You can also ask Stichting UvO or the publisher for permission via your faculty. They will charge a rate per page per course participant.

---

Would you like to know more? If so, visit the website of the copyright information office or ask your own faculty.