

Future Food Symposium

‘Food Shortage & Food Waste’

03 November 2017

Utrecht Science Park – Victor J. Koningsberger building

COSMOS room, 1st floor

Program

9:00	Registration
09:30	Welcome, by the Board Future Food Utrecht, Utrecht University
09:35	Opening, by Prof. dr. Piet Hoekstra (Dean Faculty of Geosciences, Utrecht University)
09:45	Dr. Katrien van Laere – Nutricia Research 'Building together a Healthier Future'
10:10	Dr. Peter Alexander – University of Edinburgh 'Is the current focus of food waste justified?'
10:50	Dr. Jessica Dijkman – Utrecht University 'Food shortages as distribution issues: learning from history'
11.15	Coffee & Tea break
11:35	Prof. dr. ir. Corné Pieterse - Utrecht University 'Microbial agriculture: the sustainable promise for future food security'
12:00	Prof. dr. Arjen Hoekstra – Twente University 'The global challenge of reducing the water footprint of food'
12:40	Lunch
13.30	Prof. dr. Chris Backes LLM - Utrecht University 'Does Waste Law Hamper the Circular Use of Nutrients?'

13:55	Ir. Toine Timmermans – Wageningen University 'Food waste, symptom or opportunity to build a better circular food system?'
14.35	Coffee & Tea break
14:55	Prof.dr. Mirjam Nielen - Utrecht University 'How to deal ethically and sustainable with 'unwanted' animals in specialized animal production systems?'
15:20	Discussion led by Dr. Herman Lelieveld - Utrecht University
16:10	Closing
16:20	Networking and drinks
17:30	End of symposium