

Gender identity registration: current theoretical and practical discussions
In-person workshop
October 28th
Kanunnikenzaal, Academy Building

Joining UU Diversity Month's celebrations, this workshop explores current trends in relation to gender identity registration, the consequences and implications of registration practices, and experiences from activism. It incorporates academic and non-academic voices, and it aims to showcase the research of senior and junior researchers.

13:00 – 13.30	Coffee
13:30 – 13.35	Welcome and Introduction
13.35 – 14.45	Legal aspects of registration practices
Audrey Boisgontier	Sex/gender registration in France: binary as necessary
Jet Tigchelaar & Marjolein van den Brink	The third box: judicial activism in the Netherlands
Annika van Kouterik	An assessment of the functions of sex/gender registration in the Netherlands
Christine Quinan	Discussant
14.45 – 14.55	Break
14.55 – 16.05	Legal consequences of registration practices
Lili Szuhai	Trans parents, gender labels and human rights
Elise Kolen	(Trans)gender identity fraud and human rights
Alexander Pyritz	The 'gender panic defence'
Lorena Sosa	Discussant
16.05 – 16.15	Break
16.15 – 17.00	Gender identity issues in everyday life
Hannah van Wikselaar	Sex registration practices at the UU: student perceptions

Caroline Rucah Mwochi Activism in Kenya: the work of Western Kenya LBQT Feminist Forum

Berteke Waaldijk Discussant

17.00 End of session & drinks

Speakers & Discussants

Audrey Boisgontier is PhD candidate at Nanterre University, France, and guest researcher at UCERF.

Marjolein van den Brink is lecturer in law at SIM and a member of the UCERF research group

Elise Kolen is LLM candidate Master on European Law at Utrecht University

Annika Kouterik is LLM candidate Legal Research Master at Utrecht University

Alexander Pyritz is LLM candidate Master Public International Law at Utrecht University

Christine Quinan is Assistant Professor of Gender Studies at Utrecht University

Caroline Rucah Mwochi is executive director of Western Kenya LBQT Feminist Forum

Lorena Sosa is lecturer in law at SIM and a member of the UCERF research group

Lili Szuhai is LLM candidate Legal Research Master at Utrecht University

Jet Tigchelaar is lecturer in law at Legal Theory and a member of the UCERF research group

Berteke Waaldijk is a historian and professor at the Department of Media and Culture Studies - Gender Studies at the UU

Hannah van Wikselaar is MA candidate Master Gender Studies at Utrecht University